

Figure 2: Patient outcomes according to clinically reported monthly seizure frequency at the presurgical baseline compared to the most recent visit. There was significant absolute seizure reduction within the dual unilateral ($p=.0058$) and single bilateral ($p=.0051$) groups, but not the single unilateral group ($p=.080$), according to Wilcoxon signed rank tests.