

Figure 1. Representative images of bilateral benign cystic teratomas in a 17-year-old female. Abdominal CT scans show (A) left sided 6.2 cm teratoma and (B) right sided 9.8 cm teratoma, indicated by red arrows. Intra-operative images of excised teratoma from the same patient are shown (C, D). Yellow and white arrows indicate the distal phalanx of a differentiated finger.

