Figure 1. Trajectories of weight and body composition Z-scores after NICU discharge to 36 months corrected age for 50 very preterm infants.
Spaghetti plots of individual trajectories (black lines) are shown with superimposed group trajectory and 95% confidence interval (blue line and shading) calculated from locally weighted polynomial regression (LOESS). Z-scores of zero represent the average growth trajectory of healthy full term infants.