

Table 2: Faculty Facilitator and Community Pediatrics/Advocacy Rotation/Track Director Satisfaction with the Resident Advocacy Rotation

	Average*	Standard Deviation	Range
Faculty Session Facilitators (N=17)
Teaching trainees in the AAP Resident Advocacy Rotation was a valuable experience for me.	4.6	0.5	4-5
Participating in the AAP Resident Advocacy Rotation was a valuable experience for my institution.	4.5	0.8	3-5
I am interested in teaching the AAP Resident Advocacy Rotation again in the future.	4.6	0.5	4-5
Community Pediatrics/Advocacy Rotation or Track Directors (N=11)
The AAP Resident Advocacy Rotation is a valuable learning experience for trainees at my institution	4.8	0.4	4-5
The AAP Resident Advocacy Rotation addresses a gap in my institution's advocacy/community curriculum.	3.4	1.9	1-5
I want the trainees at my institution to continue to attend the AAP Resident Advocacy Rotation in the future.	4.9	0.3	4-5

*Statements were graded on a 5-point Likert scale
Data collected between January 2024 and May 2024