

Figure 1. Example Smart Phrase used to document neonatal hypothermia events. Bolded areas indicate fields to be filled in by the nurse.

Infant found to have an axillary temperature of __36.2__°C. Room temperature at the time of recording was __23.2__°C. Infant found to be dressed covered  with 2 layers, with a hat, and located in basinet. Caregiver(s) educated on need for immediate, uninterrupted rewarming and verbalized understanding of positioning and safety during skin to skin contact. The mother verbalized understanding and the newborn was placed in skin to skin contact for rewarming. mother oral temperature __36.4__°C. Room temperature increased to highest capacity. At the start of rewarming, the newborn's blood glucose was __52__.